

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

Edith Forbes Perkins. Edith Perkins Cunningham, editor.

Letters and Journals of Edith Forbes Perkins 1908-1925. Edited by Her Daughter

[Boston]: Printed at the Riverside Press for Private Distribution 1931

First edition. Four volumes.
Octavos. Untrimmed.
Publisher's purple cloth gilt.
Fine and bright copies, in original slightly rubbed and faded, very good or better folding purple presentation
box with hasp. Warmly Inscribed by the editor. Laid in is a engraved card from her presenting the books.

Autobiography
in letters of Edith Forbes Perkins,
wife of Chalers Elliott Perkins, the railroad magnate
who controlled
the Burlington &
Missouri Railroad.
Contain much
on the families life
living in Iowa, and on travels in the West. A very nice set.
[\[BTC#139343\]](#)