

Alice Cheney Johnson

Arabella's New House

Philadelphia: Dorrance & Company (1967)

$150

Alice Cheney Johnson

ARABELLA'S NEW HOUSE

Illustrated by V. M. Banfield

First edition.
Illustrated by V.M.
Banfield. Small octavo. 48pp. A little foxing on the foredge
and endpapers, small, light stain on one page, very good or better in very good dustwrapper
with a small nick at the bottom of the thin spine. Warmly Inscribed by the author [image on next page].

Vanity press children's book by a one-time college teacher and Madison Avenue copywriter, who lived in Glen Ridge and (in Summer) Haddonfield, New Jersey. A charming little book wherein: "Threatened by termites, a mouse named Arabella travels a road beset with dangers to a new secure home in the Dark Forest." OCLC locates seven copies, most in out-of-the-way places. [BTC#326928]

To Phil and Jennifer I hope you and Arabella become the best of friends.

Alice Cheney Johnson

ARABELLA'S NEW HOUSE

by

Alice Cheney Johnson

Illustrated by

V. M. Banfield

DORRANCE & COMPANY

Philadelphia