DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

Know ye, That, reposing special trust and confidence in the intelligence, diligence and discretion of Leo W. Burr, I have nominated, and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him Postmaster at Washington Crossing, in the County of Ducks State of Pennsylvania, and do authorize and empower him to execute and fulfill the duties of that office according to the laws of the United States and the regulations of the Post Office Department, and to have and to hold the said office with all the rights and emoluments thereunto legally appertaining, from the sixteenth day of May 1957, subject to the conditions prescribed by law.

In testimony whereof I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the Post Office Department of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and eighty-first.
