Prong-bound, photo-mechanically generated leaves in printed cardstock covers. 81 leaves printed rectos only. About fine. Script for the Sondheim and Weidman musical about the lives of the outrageous brothers Addison and Wilson Mizner. The play had a checkered history. Originally directed by Sam Mendes in New York with Nathan Lane and Victor Garber in November, 1999, the production was halted by a legal challenge.

It was re-written and re-produced as Bounce in Chicago, with direction by Harold Prince; and finally as Road Show in 2008 Off-Broadway where it won Obie and Drama Desk Awards for Sondheim. Sondheim and Weidman have collaborated on several shows, most notably Pacific Overtures.
