FANCIES IN VERSE
BY LOUISE REDFIELD

First edition. 12mo. 12pp. Printed gray self-wrappers with applied bluebird label. Some foxing on the wrappers, near fine. Inscribed by the author as "Bluebird." Interesting and handsome volume of poetry "written and printed by Louise Redfield, Seventh Grade U.E.S." Author's rare first book, a volume of poetry published and printed when the author was 13 years old. Redfield went on to marry noted author Donald Culross Peattie, best known for his bestselling Almanac for Moderns. She and Peattie met at the high school of the University of Chicago and together printed his first book there in 1916. Redfield published several popular novels, achieving fame with her 1936 novel American Acres. OCLC locates just two copies of this title. [BTC#373315]
