Die Nigger Die!

New York: The Dial Press 1969

First edition. Introduction to Don L. Lee. Near fine with slight soiling on boards, a little foxing, and stamp of the Liberation Book Store of Harlem on a front blank, in slightly rubbed, near fine dustwrapper. Very warmly Inscribed by the author to Angela Davis, using most of the blank page facing the half-title: "To my Beautiful Black Sister Angela: We are the authors of a New Justice. Our's must be the art of making the impossible, possible. Much Black Power, H. Rap Brown". [BTC#392050]
