W O M E N A W A K E !

By
Kenyon Hayden Rector.
Columbus, Ohio.

(Member of the National Advisory Council of the Woman's Party.)

* The fight for your enfranchisement is not yet *
* won. Suffragists of the country, do not lay * * down your arms! Resist the insidious inroads *
* of a false propaganda which tells you that *
* "the struggle is over and the victory won," *
* thus calling you away from the battle line. *
* You soldiers who hold the cause dear, unite *
* again for the final struggle! *

* Kenyon Hayden Rector (Mrs. James Rector) mem- * * ber of the National Advisory Council, makes *
* this plea to suffragists, and gives the rea- *
* sons why every woman may whole-heartedly sup- * * port the work of the National Woman's Party. *
* She suggests that the various state and local *
* chairmen call meetings, read this history, *
* and ask for the financial support of women in *
* this hour of need. The local organization of * * Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Rector's home city, has *
* alone raised and sent in to national headquar- * * ters for ratification work more than six thou- * * sand, six hundred dollars in one year. *

Women Awake!

[No place]: National Advisory Council of the Woman's Party [1920]

First edition (?). Quarto. 23 stapled leaves mimeographed on rectos only. Very slight edgewear on the leaves, slight age-toning, else very near fine. Strong polemic by a Columbus, Ohio woman who was a member of the National Advisory Council of the Woman's Party. It begins: "The fight for your enfranchisement is not yet won. Suffragists of the country, do not lay down your arms! Resist the insidious inroads of a false propaganda tells you that 'the struggle is over and the victory won,' thus calling you away from the battle line. You soldiers who hold the cause dear, unite again for the final struggle!" OCLC locates only four copies (Cornell, Ohio Historical Society, and University of California [both Davis and Irvine]).
