

Mrs. Harrison Lee Cowie

The Battle Against the Bottle

Los Angeles: Free Tract Society [circa 1932]

First edition. Octavo. 62pp. Stapled buff wrappers, text and cover printed in blue. A toning and a short tear on the wrappers, else near fine. Poetry, hymns, children's recitals, etc., all informed by the author's work with the WCTU. Born in Australia, Cowie (1860-1950) was a New Zealand temperance campaigner, social reformer, lecturer, and writer who later re-located to Hawaii and Pasadena. OCLC locates no physical copies. [BTC#395762]