[John] Pierpont. L.A. Knapp
The Pilgrim Fathers

[No place: L.A. Knapp? no date - circa 1909]

etchings by L.A. Knapp. Octavo. 13 leaves printed rectos only. Stitched into hand drawn illustrated French-folded wrappers. Each leaf is an illustrated etching by Lucia Alden Knapp with the text of John Pierpont's 1847 poems. Inscribed by Lucia Alden Knapp and Louisa Bellow Knapp. Previous owner's ownership stamp ("John Lion Gardiner Lenning"), stitching has been renewed, modest stain on front wrap, else near fine. Lucia Alden Knapp was the daughter of a fiery abolitionist preacher and was the wife of Frederick N. Knapp who was instrumental in the success of the United States Sanitary Commission during the Civil War. OCLC records this title but finds no physical locations. [\[BTC#395844\]](#)
