Sheldon, Iowa: Mrs. Kate Powers 1900

$500

First edition. Octavo. 132, [4]pp. Stapled printed pale brown crepe paper wrappers. Pencil number on front wrap, some toning and tiny tears on the first leaf (apparently reacting to the textured paper cover), else very near fine. Ex-Library of Congress deposit copy with stamp on copyright page (noting two copies received, designating this "First Copy"). A reasonably substantial cook book prepared and published by an Iowa woman, with contributions from other Iowa women, and amply supported by local advertisers. A poorly printed but very artifactually appealing volume. Rare. OCLC locates no copies. [\[BTC#396186\]](#)
