

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

Donlan Lighoors. (Gordon H. Allison?)

Americans Unknown: A Tale of Southeast Asia in Modern Times

Bangkok: Professional Services Translators and Publishers 1967

$1200

First edition. Quarto. 214pp. Printed from typescript, original white wrappers printed in red and blue. Owner's signature ("R. Jones") on the front wrap, light rubbing on the wrappers, rubberstamped price in both dollars and baht, copyright in the name of Gordon H. Allison. Rear wrap indicates another novel by Lighoors, Viva Panama, was due out in November of 1967.

A novel of intrigue, military counterintelligence, and sexy romance revolving around a reporter in "Neverlandia," a female informant, and a mysterious Asian secret agent and Casanova. Rare. OCLC locates four copies, Cornell and Ohio only in the U.S. [BTC#397704]