YOUR WIVES, DAUGHTERS, SISTERS AND MOTHERS BELONG IN THEIR UNION AUXILIARY!

Let's not forget the song the "Almanac Singers" introduced to San Francisco Unions:

*"You girls who want to be free,
just take a tip from me.
With a man who's a union man,
be sure and join the Women's Auxiliary.
Married life's not hard,
when you have a union card.
A union man has a happy life
when he has a union wife!"*

The San Francisco I. L. W. U. Ladies' Auxiliary extends a cordial invitation to the women relatives of every I. L. W. U. member to join our organization. We have set ourselves the following program for the coming period:

1. All aid to organized labor for better wages, hours and working conditions, for the union label, etc.
2. Co-operation with Government Councils to stop increases in the Cost of living.
3. Aid to draftees, particularly those who are union members.
4. Co-operation with other organizations to promote Nursery Schools.
5. Promote social activity among union members and their families.

Now is the time for the women to organize! For real National Unity build the trade union movement. Every Union Woman Relative an auxiliary member.

San Francisco: The San Francisco I.L.W.U. Ladies' Auxiliary [circa 1937]

Flyer or handbill. 5½" x 8¼". Tiny stain in one margin, very near fine. Perforated application attached. The International Longshore and Warehouse Union, mostly centered on the west coast of the United States, was established in 1937 following a bloody dockworker's strike in 1934. This seems to date from the early days of the Union. Ephemeral, presumably few exist, and the perforated application just begs to be removed, and likely often was. [BTC#397942]
