Dorothy Mary Headley

[Scrapbook]: My Graduation Journal

Los Angeles, California: 1926

$500

Small quarto. String-tied green cloth over paper boards with gilt stamped decorations. A collection of 30 black and white photographs and a variety of ephemera from a girl's school scrapbook in the mid-1920s, with some captions. Very good plus with some worn edges and rubbing. A scrapbook kept by Dorothy Mary Headley of Los Angeles, California, when she graduated McKinley Junior High School in 1926. The album is commercially produced with pages dedicated to things like "teachers," "class motto," and "invitations" and includes Headley's penciled in captions. Throughout the album are photographs of Headley and her classmates, a large majority of whom were girls and include several African-American students, in class pictures, playing sports, and participating in May Day activities. The girls can be seen in gym uniforms playing at outdoor sports, dancing in sombreros, and posing around the campus. The last few pages include inscriptions from her schoolmates featuring famous quotes and verse with some photos. One girl, Kitty, writes, "Remember me early, remember me late, remember that once, I was your schoolmate." Tipped in are various cards from Christmas and Valentine's as well as hair bows worn for events, a green for St. Patrick's Day, and report cards.

An interesting insight into a girl's education and social life in the 1920s. [\[BTC#399233\]](#)

THE
McKINLEY SCHOOL
SONG

Oh William McKinley
Loved President of fame,
Our school is highly honored
With his great illustrious name.
His wisdom helped to plan and guide,
Our well loved country's destiny
With liberty's broad vision fair
That our nation might the greatest be.

CHORUS:

Oh McKinley we're ever loyal to thee,
Dear McKinley we'll be true
Our Alma Mater be ever cherished,
By all her sons and daughters, too,
We'll sing thy praises,
We'll cheer thee onward bravely.
Defeat we'll never fear,
Our school forever glorious,
All hail to thee, McKinley dear.
