The Story of Mary Lyon

New York: Barse & Hopkins (1922)

First edition. Octavo. 181pp., frontispiece portrait. Publisher's blue cloth gilt. About fine in near fine dustwrapper with a modest stain on the spine. Biography of Mary Lyon, the founder of Mount Holyoke College issued in a series about Famous Americans for Young Readers. Lyon was one of the first two women to be covered in the series (along with Harriet Beecher Stowe). Lyon was the first woman elected to the National Hall of Fame. Very scarce, particularly in jacket.
