Family Album Compiled as a 70th
Wedding Anniversary Present*

New York: 1920-1990

$500

Quarto. Modern 2" thick three-ring green binder. A collection of 275 sepia toned, black and white, or color photographs measuring between 1½" x 1" to 3½" x 5½" with occasional captions. A fine album with very good or better photographs with creasing and edgewear on some.

United Reformed Church Marks Member Grace Knight's 95th Birthday

ROSENDALE(HVN): A grand celebration was held recently at the United Reformed Church of Rosendale, when the congregation joined with visiting family members to mark church member Grace Knight's 95th birthday. Mrs. Grace Knight and her husband Clifford are shown (seated with daughter Marjorie and son-in-law Ben (standing), who were present for the special celebration.

A photo album assembled for the 70th wedding anniversary of Grace and Clifford Knight, an African-American couple from High Falls, New York. The album spans, in no particular order, the entirety of their relationship up until they celebrated their 70th Anniversary in 1990. It also includes photographs from their youth, showing both Grace and Clifford as children. The photos depict the couple and their friends and family on trips, celebrating holidays, and on the beach. One photo shows a woman, presumably Grace, in a graduation cap and gown. There are numerous photos of people posing outside in nice outfits, going to church, and standing by new cars in the 1940s. The couple is seen posing together from the 1920s until 1990, dancing, attending events, and growing old together. Additionally taped to the inside of the album is a letter on White House stationary congratulating the Knight's on their anniversary and (almost certainly secretarially) signed by then President George Bush, Sr.

An extensive family album depicting over 70 years of an African American couple's relationship. [BTC#400043]
