THE AMERICAN EXHIBITING ARTISTS

Large broadside. 12" x 18". Printed on thin blue paperstock. Tiny nicks and a little toning on one small spot on the left margin, else near fine. Advertises an exhibition of art at the Lee Cultural Center in February and March, 1967, along with poetry recitations ("H. Showell - C. Malone - C. Campbell - D. Morton"), plays ("Afro-American Thespians"), music ("jazz-folk-blues-gospel"), dance ("The Afro-American Dance Ensemble. Dir. A. Hall"), and a Gallery Talk. It's unlikely a broadside of this size on such thin paperstock would have survived in any numbers. No copies listed on OCLC. [BTC#400064]
