

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

Anita Libman Lebeson

On the Writing of American Jewish History

Philadelphia: (Press of the Jewish Publication Society) 1950

ON THE WRITING OF AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORY

ANITA LIBMAN LEBESON

*For Justice Turner - Best wishes from
Anita Libman Lebeson*

Reprinted from PUBLICATIONS OF THE
AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORICAL SOCIETY
No. XXXIX, Part 3
(March, 1950)

Offprint from Publications of the American Jewish Historical Society (and first separate printing). Octavo. Paginated as in the journal p.303-312. Stapled printed gray wrappers. Just about fine. Inscribed by the author on the front cover. The author went on to write Recall to Life: The Jewish Woman in America (Thomas Yoseloff, 1970). OCLC locates the scholarly journal in which the article was published but locates no copies of this separate offprint. Offprints were usually issued in extremely small numbers, usually ranging from a handful to a few dozen copies, largely for the private use of the author. [BTC#400671]