SHENANDOAH
COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE AND SCHOOL OF MUSIC

DAYTON • VIRGINIA

Vol. 18, No. 3, June, 1917. Quarto. 82, [2]pp. Illustrated. Buff yapped wrappers with embossed lettering. Name written into the faculty listing, small chips and tears on the yapped edges of the wrappers, very good or better. Apparently a periodical bulletin that doubled as the school's advertising brochure or catalogue. Apparently and appropriately for this WWI-era school catalog, the Institute was providing band members to the service. OCLC locates two runs of the bulletin.
