A photo album compiled for famed Czech violinist, Jan Kubelik, after a tour in Cuba in March of 1925. The album contains 12 professionally taken 7½" x 9½" photographs depicting notable sites in Cuba. Some of these include Havana Harbor, La Cabaña Fort, Prado Street, and Malecón Avenue. The photos show large views of the city's central park and a landscape photo with the Havana skyline in the distance. One photo shows a lovely scene of the Cauto River lined in palm trees as well as the Almendares River and a village of thatched huts from Pinar del Rio.

Jan Kubelik was a Czech violinist and composer who wrote and performed up until his death in 1940. His 1925 tour was a major trip planned after taking time off during World War I. When planning a tour he would often head to the United States and Canada with side trips to Mexico and Cuba. This album was created as a souvenir by Juan Torroella to commemorate his 1925 tour.

A wonderful collection of large photographs of Cuba with an interesting association. [\[BTC#401420\]](#)
