

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

[Photograph]: Supervising Industrial Teachers 1918. [Hampton Institute]

Hampton, Va.: Cheyne's Studio 1918

Large gelatin silver portrait photograph. Image size is 10" x 8½", affixed to a larger (13" x 11") thick card mount with the Hampton, Virginia photographer's impressed mark in the lower right corner. Captioned in ink. Slight creases on the mount, one small spot in the foreground of the image, else near fine. A portrait of approximately 60 teachers, posed before a building with large columns and three large double doors. All but a handful of the teachers are African-American women (there are two authoritative-looking white men and one woman in upper left corner). [BTC#401539]