

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

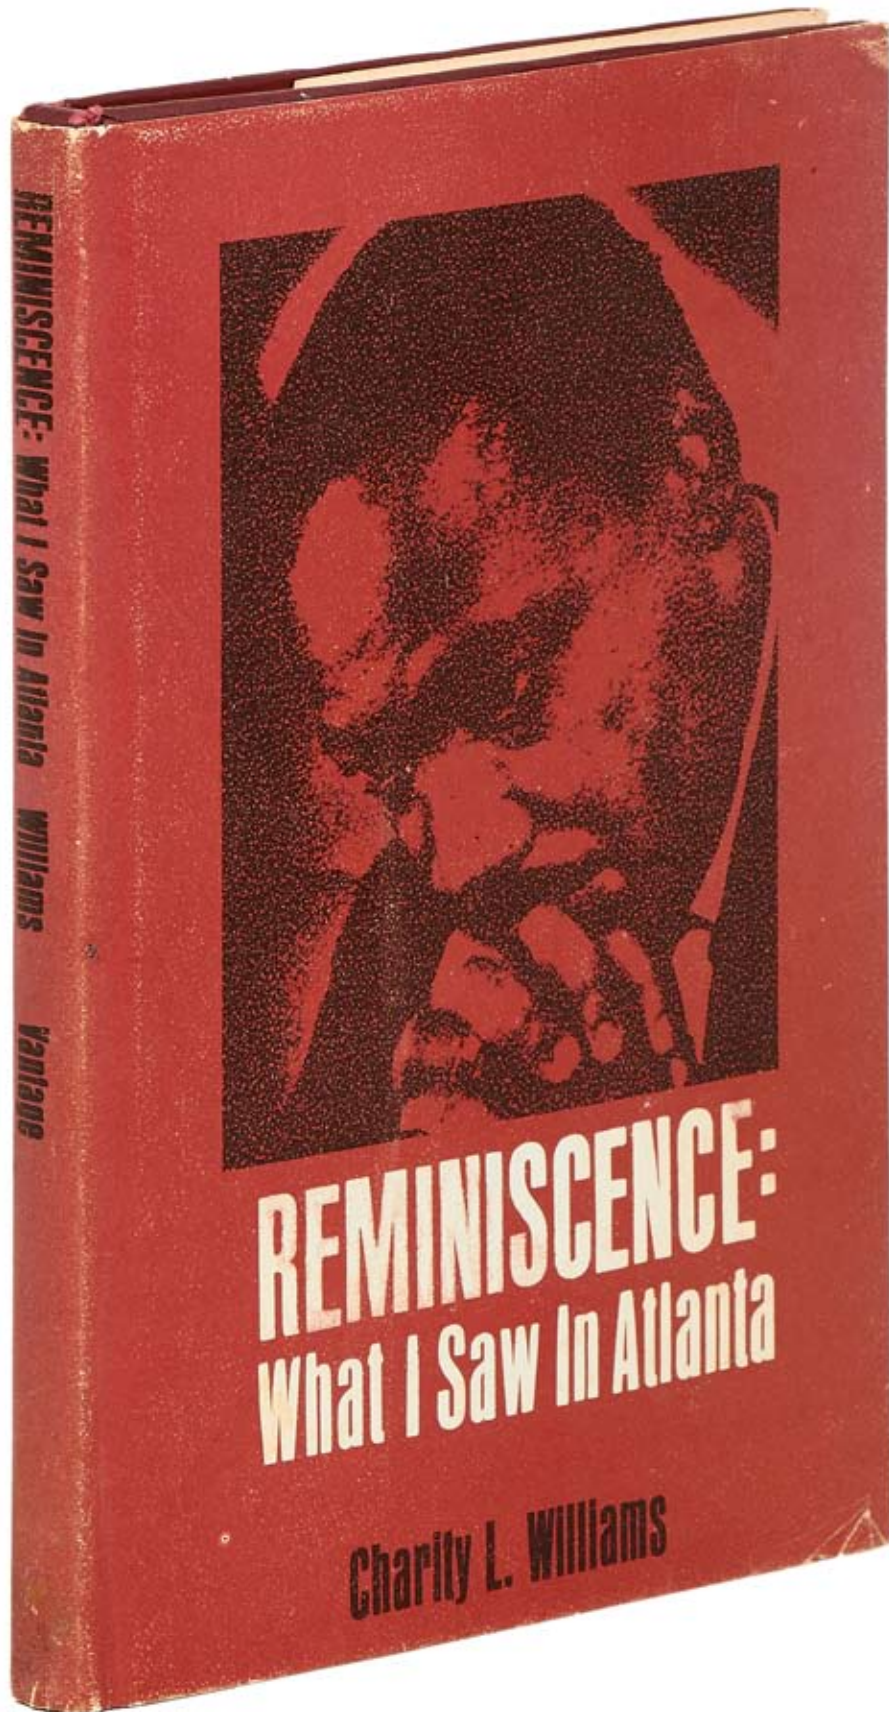

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

Charity L. Williams

Reminiscence What I Saw in Atlanta

New York: Vantage Press (1970)

$250

First edition. Octavo. 96pp. [2] leaves of inserted plates. Fine in very near fine dustwrapper with a small stain on the rear panel. Memoir by a young Louisiana African-American woman who had been inspired by attending speeches given by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. When he was assassinated, she left Los Angeles where she was getting a Masters degree, to attend his funeral in Atlanta. Includes photographs from the event. Uncommon vanity press publication; OCLC locates only nine copies. [\[BTC#401872\]](#)