

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

(John F. Kennedy)

The Choate News: Pictorial Supplement. February 23, 1935

New Haven - Wallingford, Conn.: The Choate School 1935

$700

Folio-size tabloid. Unbound bifolium with additional leaf laid in to make six pages. Extensively illustrated from photographs. Faint bend in upper corner, small pencil note ("Jack pg-3") in upper right corner of first page, very small tear on final leaf, else near fine.

(Above) THE BRIEF BOARD
which is working under Hoyt on the 1935 edition to appear at Spring Festivities.

Various photographs of sports teams, clubs, and theatrical performances all captioned, as well as ads for various local businesses. One the third page is a group shot of well-dressed young men including John F. Kennedy in the front row, captioned “The Brief Board which is working under Hoyt on the 1935 edition to appear at Spring Festivities”. It is possible that Kennedy appears in some of the other images, which are in some cases either indistinct, action shots, or in the theatrical shots, obscured with large Prussian-style facial hair, but the image of The Brief Board is the only one that we can positively identify. A rare and ephemeral juvenile image of Kennedy. Curiously, OCLC seems to locate no runs of The Choate News. [BTC#402771]