

SLEE BROS. PHOTOGRAPHERS.

GRADUATING CLASS NO. 326.

Eastman National Business College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

November 27, 1867.

"WE MET AS STRANGERS, WE PART AS FRIENDS."

C. A. DORTIC, President, Augusta, Georgia.

C. N. LAWSON, Cashier, New York City.

J. HIRSCHBERG, Rondout, N. Y.

B. E. CARPENTER, Glens Falls, N.Y.

J. J. MAHON, Elizabeth, N. Jersey.

R. C. BARD, Franklinville, N. Y.

H. M. NEWTON, Yarmouth, Maine.

J. HOLLINSHEAD, Elmira, N. Y.

J. T. KAUTZ, Lancaster City, Penn.

R. CRANDALL, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

G. W. WILCOX, Misopotamia, Ohio.

G. D. BREED, Norwich, N. Y.

W. H. WARD, Montague, Mass.

B. JEFFERS, Hadley, N. Y.

A. GEORGE, Lyon Valley, Penn.

[Photographic broadside]: Graduating Class No. 326. Eastman National Business College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. November 27, 1867. "We met as strangers, we part as friends."

Poughkeepsie?: Slee Bros., Photographers 1867

$600

Broadside. Printed card measuring 11¼" x 13" with 10¼" x 8" applied albumen photographic image of 16 students. Light dampstain tidemarks at the extremities, some toning on the card and some spotting on the photographic image, overall very good. A class portrait of a group of well-dressed young men who attended the Eastman National Business College in Poughkeepsie, New York. The school was founded in 1859 by Harvey Eastman and was for a time the largest business school in America, specializing in hands-on learning. [BTC#408223]