

City Debates and Soliloquies. Important and Very Interesting; with occasional Remarks... Written to a Friend in the North, But dedicated to Nineteen Twentieths of the People of Great Britain, &c. &c. &c.

London: Printed for the Author, by W. Mason 1820

$250

CITY DEBATES

AND SOLILOQUIES.

IMPORTANT AND VERY INTERESTING;

With occasional Remarks.

The Queen,

"I come to court Enquiry."

Welcome GOOD QUEEN! we'll succour give,
'Gainst all your Foes, we'll firmly move,
Be not dismayed,—“Long may you live,”
Be happy in your subjects love.

Unwillingly YOU left this Isle,
And wandered in an exiled state,
You barter'd for the TEAR,—the SMILE,
Your Foes exulted at your fate.

Confide in BRITONS watchful care,
Ere long your Foes,—GOD WILL SUBDUE;
Be happy,—for the BRITONS PRAYER,
WITH UNFEIGNED LIPS, SHALL BE FOR YOU.

WRITTEN TO A FRIEND IN THE NORTH,
But dedicated to Nineteen twentieths of the People of Great Britain, &c. &c. &c.

London:

Printed for the Author, by W. MASON, 21, Clerkenwell Green.

1820.

J. Foster
21st 8 Mo
20

First edition. Octavo. 16pp. Self-wrappers. Removed from a nonce volume. Owner's name and offsetting on first leaf, some spotting, very good. A dramatic satire in verse, on the trial of Queen Caroline. The owner dates the pamphlet "21st 8 Mo. 20" (August 21, 1820), two weeks after the death of Caroline. OCLC locates three copies, all curiously, in the American Midwest. [BTC#408524]