

Anne Waldman

Vow to Poetry. Essays, Interview, & Manifestos

(Minneapolis): Coffee House Press 2001

$600

First edition. Tall octavo. Trade paperback original (no clothbound issue). Slight bump at the bottom of a few pages, else fine. Inscribed by Waldman to Patti Smith on the title page: "with love & admiration, Anne Waldman." Loosely inserted is an August 2001 card from Waldman to Patti Smith and her then husband Oliver. Waldman describes her itinerary and asks Smith to consider reading with her at University of Michigan the following year. Smith is indexed twice in the book. A nice association between two poets active in the most creative period of the mimeograph revolution in New York.
