

(Photograph): Sac & Fox Indian School 1890

$450

Gelatin silver photograph mounted on card. Image size is 8" x 6" on 10" x 8" thick card. Captioned in ink in lower margin: "Sac & Fox Indian School 1890". Light blue pencil note on verso: "Harris Mother" presumably referring to one of the students pictured. Small stains in the margins, a bit of rubbing on the image, mostly on the margins and not very noticeable, image is very good or better.

An image of six Sac and Fox children, three boys and three girls, in Westernized dress. Three are seated and three standing on some sort of animal fur rug. One boy in upper right appears to be smiling, the rest look straight forward and unsmiling into the camera. The Sac and Fox originally inhabited the area around Lakes Huron and Michigan, but were removed and relocated by the government several times, finally settling in Indian Territory in 1870, in what is now Oklahoma. A very nice image. [\[BTC#411215\]](#)
