The passes were previously owned by someone who worked back stage for concerts in the California area. Prince's hit film Purple Rain (1984), was an instant success. The studio album Purple Rain was used as the film's soundtrack and starred Prince in the semi-autobiographical film. The Purple Rain album sold more than 13 million copies in the US and the film won Prince an Academy Award for Best Original Song Score. Thus giving Prince both the No. 1 album, single, and film in the US, simultaneously. After his death Prince's catalog sold 4.41 million albums and songs from April 21 to 28, with five of his albums in the top ten of the Billboard 200, a first in the chart's history. Remembered "as a musician, composer, innovator, and cultural icon," Prince has been a huge influence to musicians and fans alike. [\[BTC#411959\]](#)
