

Czech World War II Poems

Jarda Kantor and Karl Jituš

Květy v Bombách. [Flowers in Bombs]

Egypt: (Privately printed) Christmas 1941

$1200

First edition. Cover art and 11 full page illustrations by Karl Jitus. 10, [2], 12–52pp laid into card covers as issued. Printed in red and black. Very near fine. Limited to 160 copies, this is one of the 150 Arabic numbered copies, Signed by the author and illustrator.

Czech illustrated booklet with war poetry of World War II, created by two soldiers of the 11th Infantry Battalion of Czechoslovak Army in exile while serving with the British forces in Egypt. OCLC locates a single copy in the National Library of the Czech Republic. [\[BTC#412595\]](#)