

Sixth Annual Catalogue of the Officers and Students of Indiana Asbury University, August, 1844

Greencastle [Indiana]: John C. Chiles, Printer 1844

$600

First edition. Octavo. 16pp. Stitched printed brown wrappers. A couple contemporary ink marks in the text, horizontal crease, stain on rear wrap has bled onto the last couple of leaves, a handsome very good copy. Lists of students (ten Seniors, etc.), faculty, and the rules and academic overview. Named after Francis Asbury, the first American Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the University changed its name in 1884 to DePauw University, in honor of an important donor and patron. OCLC locates two early runs of the catalog, at DePauw and Indiana Historical Society.
