

Marianne Moore

Two Inscribed Marianne Moore Books

1948

$1200

Two books by Marianne Moore Inscribed to magazine editor, Elizabeth McFarland: a first edition of What Are Years (New York: The Macmillan Company 1941; near fine in very good dustwrapper) and a third edition of Nevertheless (New York: The Macmillan Company 1944; fine in near fine dustwrapper with some light wear and small tears at the edge).

The books are housed in a cardboard box with the printed address label of publisher William Sloane Associates tipped on. Moore has crossed out her Brooklyn, New York address, as well as that of William Sloan's, and readdressed the box to McFarland. Both books are Inscribed in full by Moore to McFarland on March 3, 1948. McFarland was the poetry editor for Scholastic magazine and later Ladies Home Journal, and the wife of poet Daniel Hoffman, the U.S. Poet Laureate from 1973-1974. A nice association.
