

Milton McIntyre Brown

Suzanne: A Play in Three Acts

New York: Vantage Press (1969)

$200

First edition. Octavo. 129pp. Fine in slightly age-toned, very near fine, price-clipped dustwrapper. Inscribed upside down by the author on the rear endpaper in an infirm hand, and inscribed on the front fly by the author's daughter "In memory of my parents." Seemingly autobiographical play about an American involved in the relief of Belgium, a Belgium-born German soldier, and their love for a beautiful Belgium woman. the author was involved in the relief of Belgium in 1915, later fought with the Americans on Pershing's staff, and then returned to the Relief effort. He later served in WWII on Eisenhower's staff. OCLC locates four copies. [\[BTC#420031\]](#)
