

John R. Koch

Peeky the Curious Elf

[Philadelphia] / Chicago: The Sunday Bulletin / Spadea Synd. December 18, 1966

$175

The Sunday Bulletin
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1966

HI!

HERE'S A COMPLETE
MAKE-IT YOURSELF
BOOK

- ① CUT ALONG DOTTED LINE AT THE TOP OF BOTH PAGES.
- ② PUT PAGES BACK TOGETHER IN SAME ORDER AS THEY WERE. (YOU CAN MAKE SURE BY CHECKING TO SEE IF THE PAGE NUMBERS ARE IN ORDER.)
- ③ FOLD ENTIRE BOOK.
- ④ HAVE FUN READING IT OVER AND OVER.

Do you like this new feature? We invite your comment on the children's books. Write, Story Book, Room 414, Chicago Tribune.

WATCH NEXT MONTH
FOR ANOTHER COMPLETE CHILDREN'S BOOK

© 1966 Spadea Synd., Inc. All Rights Reserved

a complete children's book

PEEKY

the Curious
elf

Written and Illustrated by
JOHN R. KOCH

First edition. A single leaf printed in color folded to make 16pp. Unopened. Written and illustrated by John R. Koch. Newsprint pages mildly toned, a couple of tiny tears, but supple and very good. A complete children's book issued as a Sunday newspaper supplement; the book was intended to be cut and collated into a book by children. OCLC locates six copies of this first edition, none in major children's book collections. The story was published as a book two years later in 1968. [BTC#420641]

Peeky can't take the time to work.
He's too busy peeking around seeing what everyone else is doing.

4

Each year Santa scolds him for not doing his share. But Peeky can't help it, he was just born curious.