First edition. 12mo. 77, [3]pp. Stapled wrappers. Playwright's address label affixed inside front cover and wrappers a trifle age-toned, else very near fine. Inscribed by Warnock to the director and author: "To Garson Kanin, Who said 'write parts for tall women.' Good Advice! Kathleen." An interesting association. A play about women's basketball by an awarded female sportswriter for the Columbia (S.C.) Record. Kanin at the time was married to Marian Seldes, who played one of the Three Tall Women in Edward Albee's play of that name, which previewed in 1992, leading us to believe the book was probably inscribed about that time.
