

Frances Bethea Grant

There's More to Tell: Poems

[Albany, New York: Black Women's Association of Albany] (1983)

$550

THERE'S MORE TO TELL

Poems
by
Frances Bethea Grant

Second edition (originally published in 1976). Illustrated by Dorothy Bryan. Octavo. 22pp. Frontispiece portrait. Stapled illustrated wrappers. Fine. Laid in is a four page flyer (one leaf folded to make four pages), indicating that the proceeds from the book go to the Black Women's Association of Albany Scholarship Fund. Small sticker shadow on rear wrap else about fine. Inscribed by the author: "Oct. 8, 1983 To Eleanor, Fellow author and new Friend. NAACP Forever. Love, Frances B. Grant." Poetry about the black experience by a black woman puppeteer who performed for nursery schools, day care centers, and elementary school children. OCLC locates no copies of either edition. [BTC#423495]

Oct. 8, 1983

To Eleanor,
Fellow author
and new friend.
NAACP
Forever.
Love
Frances B Grant

THERE'S MORE TO TELL

Poems

by

Frances Bethea Grant

Illustrated by

Dorothy Bryan