

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

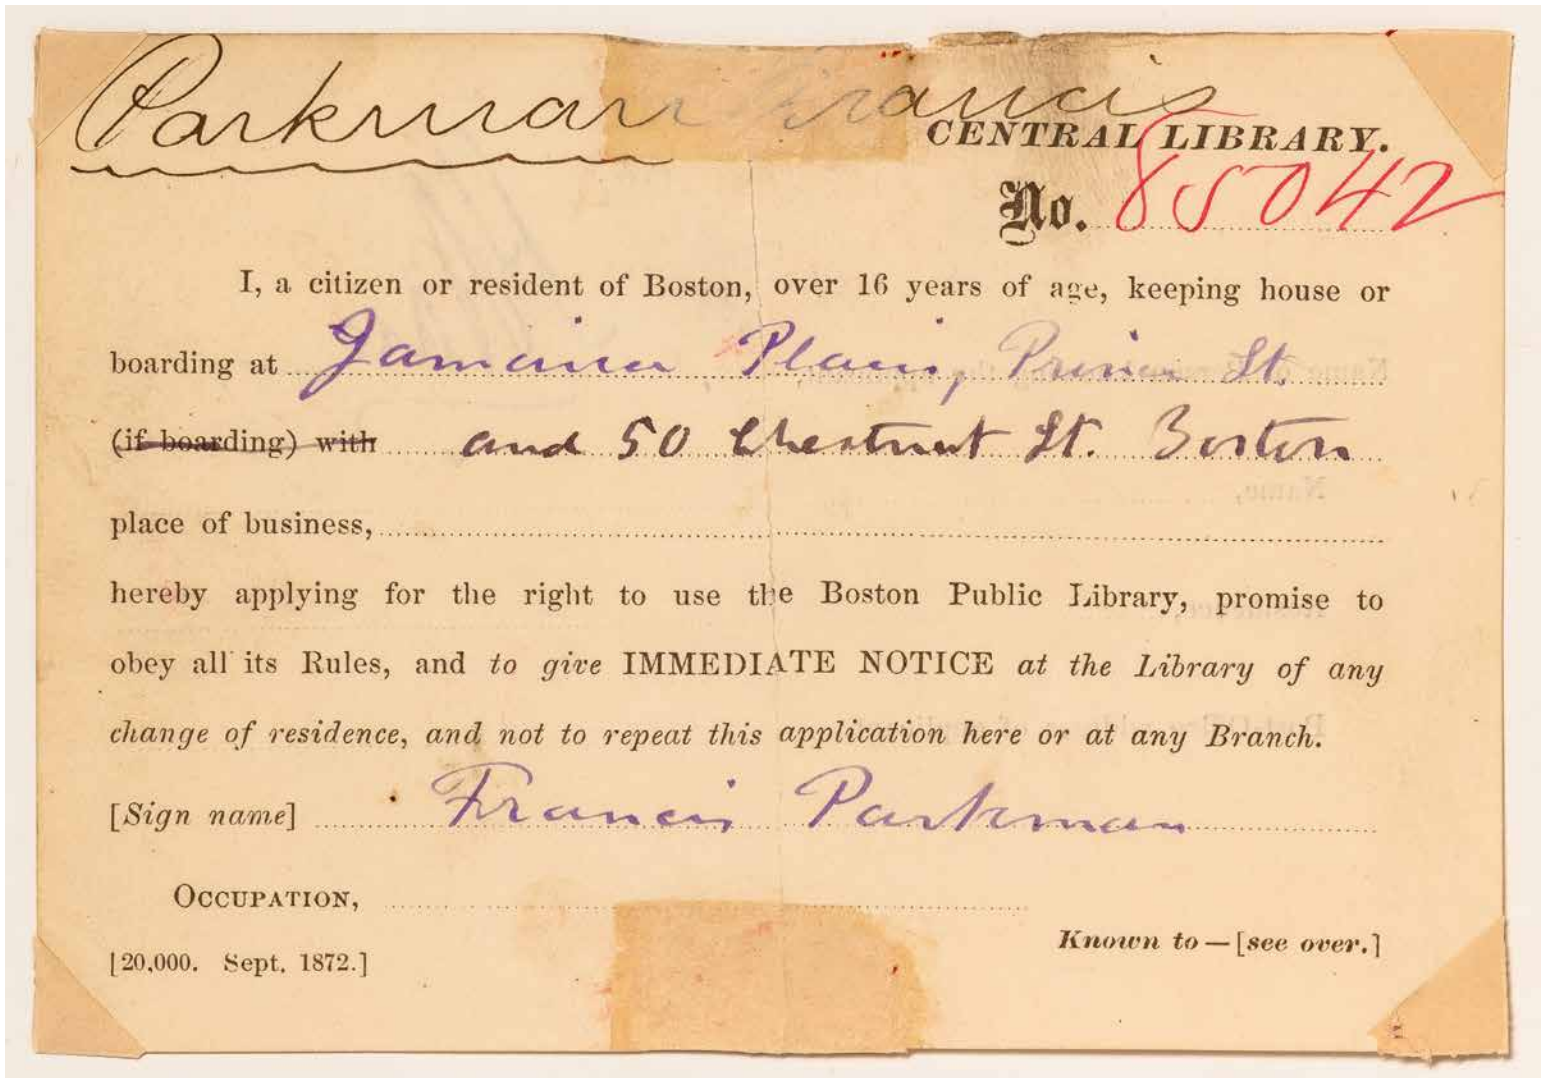

Francis Parkman, Jr.

(Partially printed document): Historian Francis Parkman, Jr. applies for a Library Card

Boston: Boston Public Library (circa 1872)

$500

Approximately 5" x 3½". Old vertical fold, small paper remnants in the corners from an old mounts, and two old glassine repairs at the ends of the folds, overall good with the signature ("Francis Parkman") clear and readable in purple ink. Historian Francis Parkman, Jr., author of The Oregon Trail and Sketches of Prairie and Rocky-Mountain Life, applies for a library card , giving his address in Jamaica Plains. Endorsed on the verso by a witness, which is featured on the following page. [BTC#423739]

ORIGINAL RECEIPT

over 10 years of age, having been

Name of Person knowing the applicant,

W. H. Case

Name,

Residence,

Post-Office address of applicant,

RECEIVED
OCT 10 1851