

Rare DIY Book by a Pulitzer Prize-winning Poet

Margaret Widdemer

Queens

New York: Poets' Mimeograph Service 1939

$2000

First edition. Octavo. 10pp. (Original?) quarter gold-colored tape spine and purple paper wrappers with applied gold title label with the title handwritten. About fine. Signed "With all good wishes, Margaret Widdemer" on the titlepage. Housed in custom cloth chemise with ribbon ties and black morocco title label gilt.

QUEENS

by

Margaret Widdemer

With all good wishes

Margaret Widdemer

Published by

The Poets' Mimeograph Service
320 West Eighteenth Street
New York, N Y.

This is a rare amateur-seeming production publishing six of Widdemer's poems. Widdemer, after a year spent cataloguing rare books for the eminent Dr. A.S.W. Rosenbach, shared the 1919 Pulitzer Prize for poetry (the second ever awarded) with Carl Sandburg. OCLC locates eight copies, mostly in unlikely locations.

[BTC#423851]

QUEENS

—

MARGARET

WIDDEMER

