

Mariano Frattallone

Songs of Atomic Civilization / I canti della civiltà atomica

(Chicago: Division Typesetting Co. 1952)

$200

First edition. Octavo. 127, [1]pp. Printed flexible card wrappers. Bi-lingual text in Italian and English. Wrappers a trifle soiled else about fine. Laid in is a two-page Autograph Letter Signed from the author, a priest, to Stanley Kunitz, on the stationary of St. Joseph's Hospital in Reading, Pennsylvania, sending this volume of poetry and explaining the philosophical and theological structure of the poetry. OCLC locates three copies. [BTC#423872]

MARIANO FRATTALLONE

SONGS OF ATOMIC CIVILIZATION

Translated from the Italian

by

RODOLFO PUCELLI

---

Copyright, 1952

COPYRIGHT 1953
BY MARIANO FRATTALLONE

SAINT JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL
READING, PA.

CHAPLAIN

June 13th 1969

Prof. Buntz,
after sending you, by Registered mail, with a return receipt,
a copy of my book "Spiriti-
-tualismo quocologico e Metafisico"
I am sending you now a copy of my poems: "Songs of atomic Civilization", in which I try to transpire, in a lyrical impetus, through a philosophi-cal and theological structure of interpretation, the manifold, apocalyptic manifestations of this titanic and self-contradicting era, whose ultimate