

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

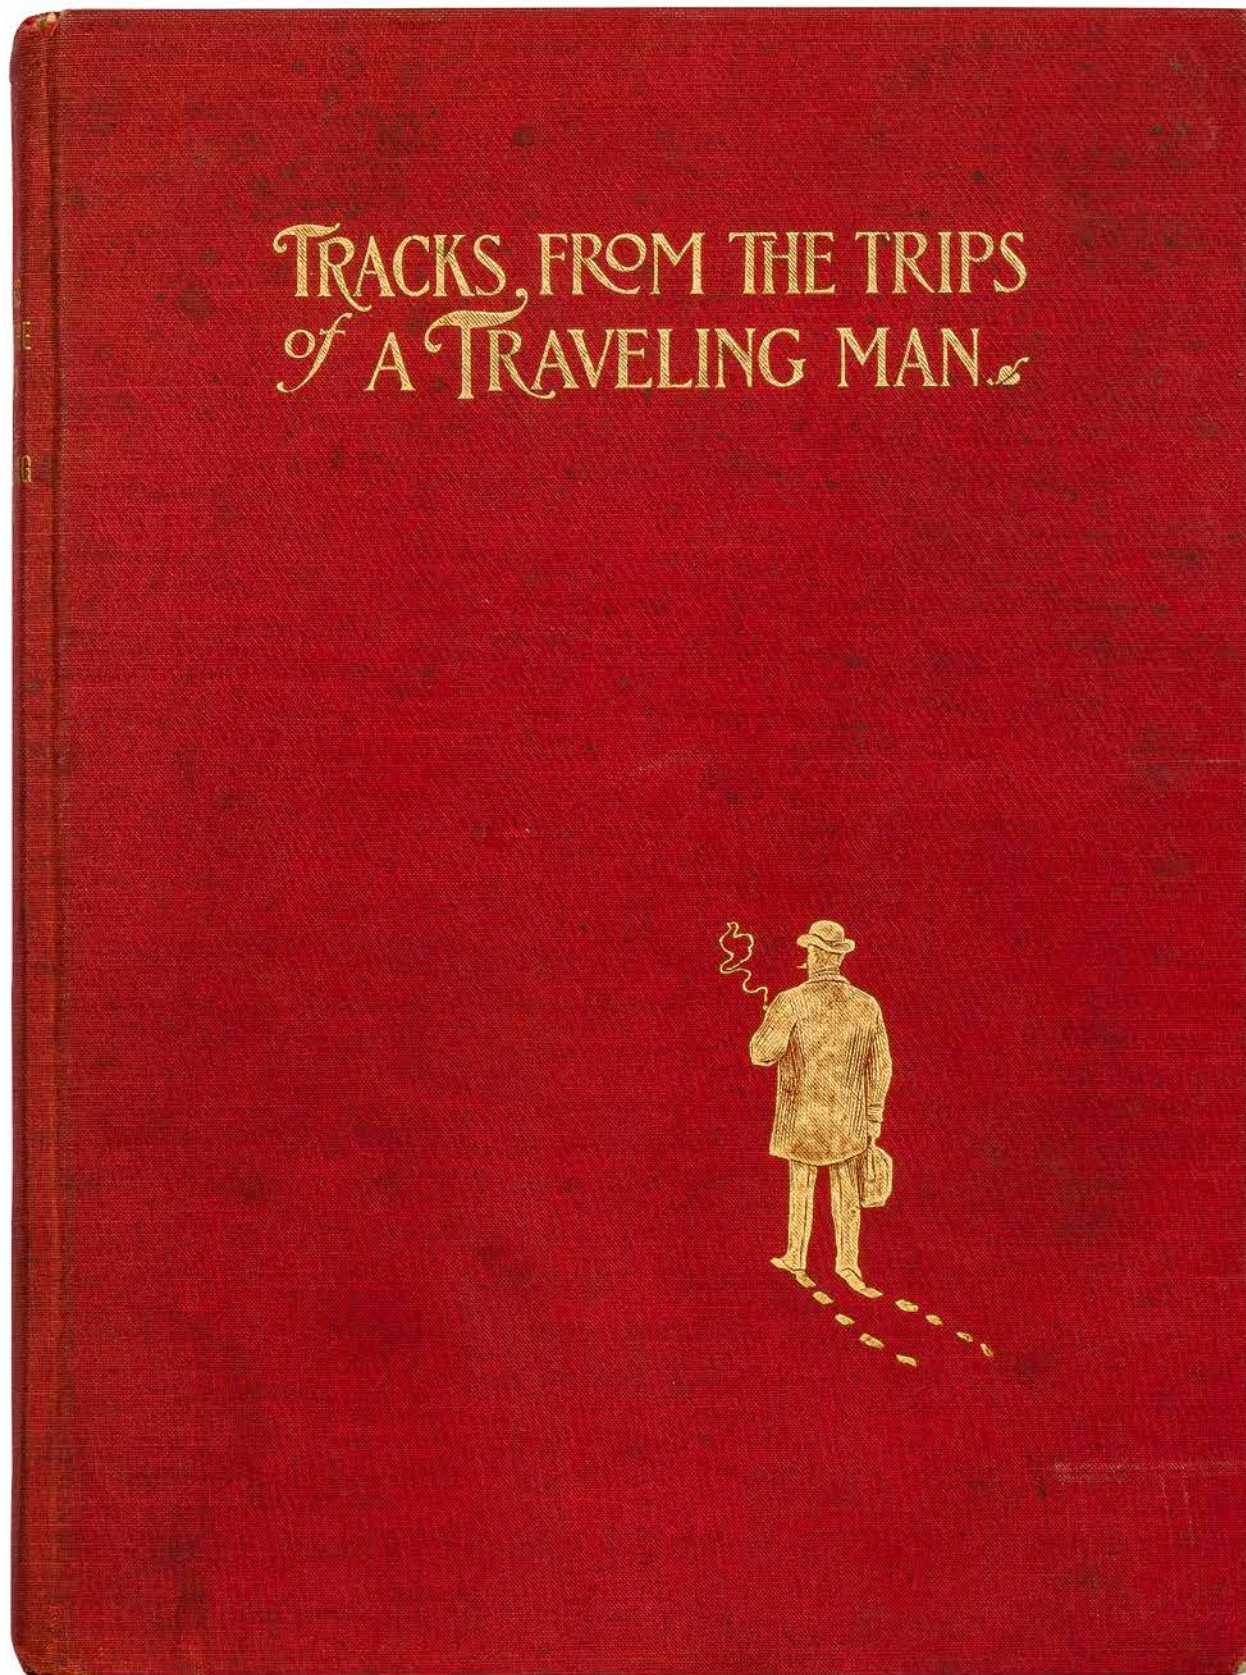

O.P. Stearns

Tracks from the Trips of a Traveling Man

Winthrop, Lawrence County, New York: O.P. Stearns 1901

$300

First edition. Illustration by Viva C. Stearns. Quarto. 109pp. Frontispiece portrait of the author. Red cloth illustrated and titled in gilt. Handbill for the book laid in. Some soiling and spotting on the boards, bottom corners a little bumped, slight fraying at the crown, very good or a little better. Poetry by a traveling salesman or "drummer." Warmly Inscribed by the author to his sister Martha, with two lines of poetry about a sister. Very scarce. [BTC#424947]

To my Sister Martha,
with love from the author

Dec. 13th 91

O. P. Stearns

"This Sister he loved, as a good mother should,
And he wanted to send her a token".

TRACKS FROM THE TRIPS
OF A TRAVELING MAN

BY
O. P. STEARNS

ILLUSTRATIONS BY
VIVA C. STEARNS

WINTHROP
ST. LAWRENCE COUNTY, NEW YORK
1901