The Maroon Crescent 1949

Scotland Neck, North Carolina: Brawley High School 1949

$400

First edition. Quarto. Unpaged (approximately 100pp.) printed rectos on paper with a wood grain pattern on the versos. Illustrated from photographs and drawings. Embossed and gilt leather-grained cloth. Spine and internal joints neatly repaired with library tape, a few small notes by a student, about very good. Primarily a yearbook for an all-black high school, with traditional senior portraits, faculty portraits, clubs, sports teams, class poem, etc. A limited amount of space is devoted to grammar school classes that must have shared the same building. OCLC locates no copies. Class Poem

What would we give for what we have gotten
In these dear walls of Brawley?
Her profound principles we dedicate
With hope that we will more create.

What would we take of what we have gotten
In these dear walls of Brawley?
Mental alertness, happiness galore
These we'll keep, and many more.

Now what will we do and what will we give
Our Alma Mater Brawley?
We can certainly try with all our might
To be good citizens and fight for right.
