

Belle Highwalking

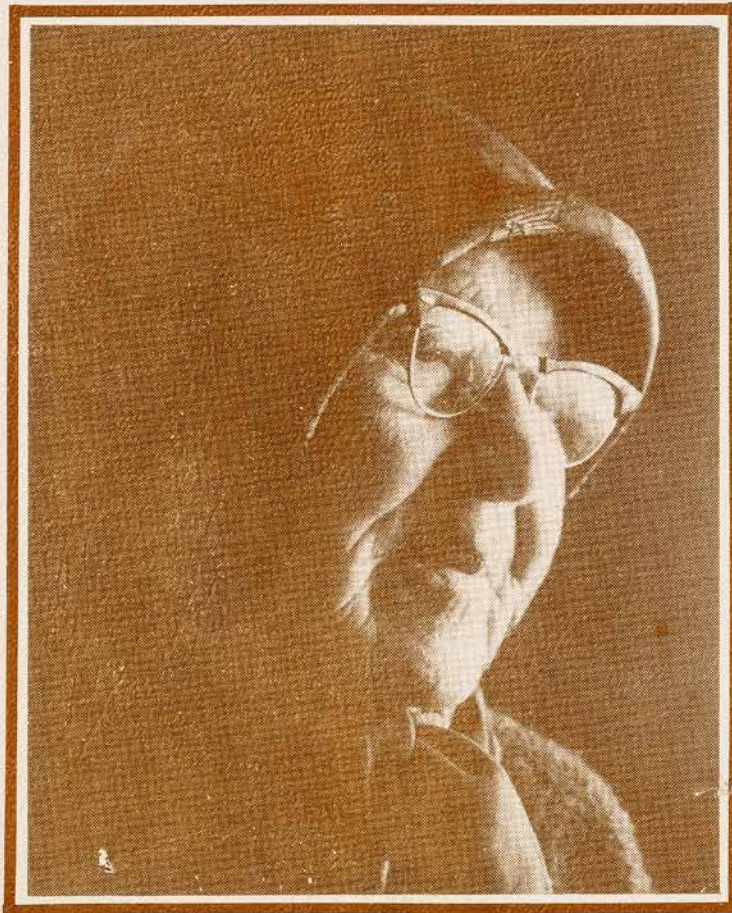

Belle Highwalking: The Narrative of a Northern Cheyenne Woman

Billings, Montana: Montana Council for Indian Education 1979 / 1991

$200

BELLE HIGHWALKING:

The Narrative of a Northern Cheyenne Woman

EDITED BY KATHERINE M. WEIST

JB-75

Montana Council for Indian Education

$ 2.95

First edition, second state with "1991 Edition" on a small label on the titlepage. Edited by Katherine M. Weist. Octavo. 66pp. Illustrated from photographs. Frontispiece portrait. Stapled photographically illustrated wrappers. Fine. The first edition issued the same year as Highwalking's death, and was later reissued with the "1991 Edition" sticker.

[BTC#425466]

Belle, Floyd, May and George.
Portrait taken in Sheridan, Wyoming about 1916.

we stayed there about three months before we came home.

Belle and Floyd near Thermopolis, Wyoming about 1948.

Also at Thermopolis, Wyoming about 1948. Belle and Floyd were in the field and the man was wearing a cowboy hat. The woman was wearing a patterned dress and a shawl. They were standing in front of a large, textured mound of earth or rock.