

BETWEEN TWO FIRES:

A history of the Fifty-fourth Massachusetts

Infantry Volunteers (Colored)

1863 - 1865

BETWEEN TWO FIRES:

A history of the Fifty-fourth Massachusetts

Infantry Volunteers (Colored)

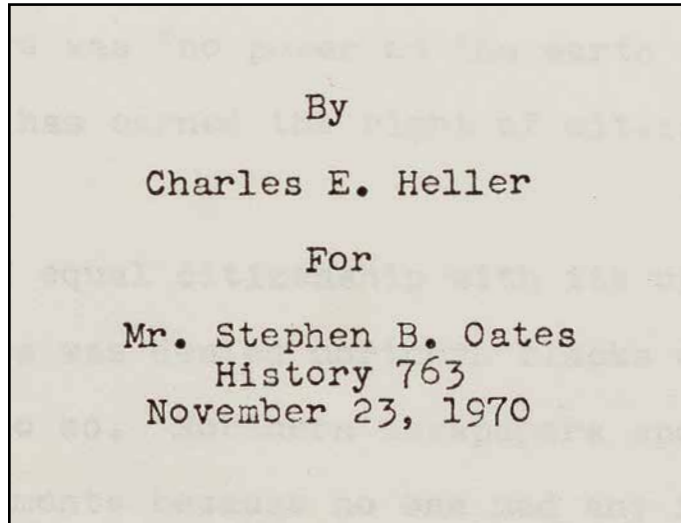

1863 - 1865

Charles E. Heller

[Manuscript]: Between Two Fires: A History of the Fifty-Fourth Massachusetts Infantry Volunteers (Colored) 1863 - 1865

[No place - Amherst?]: Charles E. Heller for Mr. Stephen B. Oates 1970

$1200

Quarto. Stapled photomechanically reproduced leaves printed rectos only. P.33, [3] (bibliography). Staples in upper corner a little pulled, some soiling on top sheet, some hand corrections - whether by hand or in the reproduction is unclear, else near fine. A detailed report on the 54th prepared for a history class taught by noted historian and author Stephen B. Oates, probably at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. OCLC locates a single copy (in a small rural school library) of a second edition published by Civil War Times Illustrated in 1972. Possibly unique in this earliest edition. [BTC#425773]