

Leonard Spier

When the Sirens Blow and Other Poems

New York: B.C. Hagglund, Publisher 1933

$400

First edition.
Foreword by Jack
Conroy. Small
octavo. 36pp.
Stapled illustrated
red wrappers. Cover
design by O. Monus.
Some edgewear along
the spine, very good.
Radical poetry, several
of which appeared in American left-
wing journals, and
includes translations
of two Hungarian
poems. OCLC
locates eight copies.
[BTC#425961]

When the Sirens Blow

and
Other Poems

by
LEONARD SPIER

With a Foreword by Jack Conroy

To Bishop William Montgomery Brown, who, with inspired energy and extraordinary erudition, has done more than any other single force in militantly diffusing and popularizing the great truths of modern natural science, these poems are respectfully dedicated.

FIRST EDITION

Cover design by O. Monus

B. C. HAGGLUND, Publisher,
c/o Repot, 1299 Franklin Ave., New York City 1933