

BETWEEN THE COVERS RARE BOOKS

112 Nicholson Rd, Gloucester City, NJ 08030 (856) 456-8008 betweenthecovers.com

FOR CONFERENCE USE ONLY; NOT FOR PUBLICATION

LITERATURE-AMERICAN

TOWARD A PHILOSOPHY OF AMERICAN NEGRO LITERATURE

By Dr. William T. Fontaine
Ass't Professor of Philosophy
University of Pennsylvania

Dr. William T. Fontaine

Toward a Philosophy of American Negro Literature

[Philadelphia?]: The Author [circa 1960]

$950

First edition(?), "For Conference Use Only." Quarto. [37]pp. (curiously, the final leaf ends in mid sentence in the middle of the page, and might be an addenda). Original typescript, appears to be the ribbon (top) copy. Staple rusted else very near fine. Fontaine (1909-1968), an African-American graduate of Lincoln University and the University of Pennsylvania, established a solid academic career teaching philosophy in decades-long tenures at Lincoln, Southern, Morgan State, and Penn. For detailed biography see Black Philosopher, White Academy: The Career of William Fontaine by Bruce Kuklick (Philadelphia, 2008). Possibly unrecorded, and perhaps unique. OCLC locates no copies, not in the Catalogue of the Blockson Collection. [BTC#426163]

FOR CONFERENCE USE ONLY; NOT FOR PUBLICATION

LITERATURE-AMERICAN

TOWARD A PHILOSOPHY OF AMERICAN NEGRO LITERATURE

By Dr. William T. Fontaine
Ass't Professor of Philosophy
University of Pennsylvania