

Who Is You and Who Is I? [Cover title]: Your Honor
Seattle, Washington: [no publisher] 1934

$400

First (only?). Tall octavo. 42pp. combination of mimeographed and printed leaves printed rectos only. Handcolored illustrations. Illustrated green papercovered boards. Some modest erosion to the paper at the spine ends, a handsome very good copy. A very unusual volume, a combination of verse, aphorisms, and odd illustrations. A note at the end states: "Who Is You ... And Who Is I" will continue March 13, 1935" (there is no evidence a further continuation was published). OCLC seems to locate no copies. [BTC#426219]

SAYS I:

I'M A BIT TIRED ... YOU CAN RHYME BULLS,
BEARS AND WOLFS ... I SHALL TRY ANOTHER
CAMEL .. A CAMEL OR TWO ... BELIEVE ME HONEY
I CAN STEAL, AND GET YOUR BABY TOO IT IS I!
AND MY LOVE IS BEST ... AND YOU SHALL REST A
WHILE ... AND TRY ONE TOO. ... YES, HONEY. ... IT IS I.
AND YOU ... BUT I KNOW YOU LOVE HER BEST.
THE HUNGRY WOLFS ... THEY EAT MONEY ... AND LET THE PONY RUN.
