

(Catalog or program:) Slavery in America. Manuscripts and Other Items 1660-1865. (Cover title:) Slavery in America. An Epoch Ended. Manuscripts and Other Items 1660-1865 Selected from the Collection of Philip D. and Elsie O. Sang, River Forest, Illinois. An Exhibition arranged by H.D. Gunn
Lincoln University, Pennsylvania: Vail Memorial Library, Lincoln University (1966) $300

Slavery in America

An Epoch Ended

Manuscripts and Other Items
1660 - 1865

Selected from the Collection of
PHILIP D. and ELSIE O. SANG
RIVER FOREST, ILLINOIS

AN EXHIBITION

Arranged by
H. D. GUNN

VAIL MEMORIAL LIBRARY
LINCOLN UNIVERSITY
LINCOLN UNIVERSITY • PENNSYLVANIA

Lincoln University issue (and first edition thus, apparently there exists a 1963 edition, for a Rutgers' University exhibition with different pagination). Octavo. [8]pp. Stapled printed orange wrappers. Stapled a bit rusted else fine. This exhibition was created by H. D. Gunn to celebrate the centenary of Lincoln University. Program or catalog that list 17 terrific items about slavery including one of the 12 trial copies of the Emancipation Proclamation, a 1660 bill of sale for Indian slaves, a John Brown letter on organizing the Underground Railroad and others. OCLC locates no copies of either edition. [BTC#429811]

Slavery in America

Manuscripts and Other Items

1660 - 1865

The Early Years, 1-4

The Revolution and Early Republic, 5

Slavery In The South, 6

Abolitionism In The North, 7-11

The Civil War, 12-17