TO RUN!
WHERE THE BRAVE
DARE NOT GO!

Allan L. Hyman

First edition. Thin octavo. 63pp. Illustrated from photographs. About fine in soiled and lightly chipped very good photo-illustrated dustwrapper. Memoir by a gung-ho combat photographer born in Brooklyn and resident in New Jersey. Illustrated with photographs of American troops, dead and wounded VC, etc., by the author. Much of the text is taken up with talk of combat, prostitutes and sexual boasting, and resentment of anti-war protestors and draft-dodgers, including a particularly bad poem entitled "Letter to a Coward." Inscribed by the author. A highly unusual volume. OCLC locates no copies; no records of sale that we could find. We've never seen another.
