

Garland Rotch

Wreck and Rescue

[San Francisco: The Author? circa 1935]

$200

First separate edition (“Reprinted by courtesy of Atlantic Monthly”). 16mo. 14, [1]pp. Stapled printed pale green card wrappers. A few small marks on the wrappers, very good or better. Nicely Inscribed by the author in San Francisco in 1936. Author’s account of Rotchford’s WWI-era shipwreck, at the time of publication he was designing yachts in San Francisco. OCLC locates only three copies.

[BTC#432149]

111

Wreck and Rescue

BY

CAPT. GARLAND ROTCH

REPRINTED BY COURTESY OF THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY

San Francisco

June 15/1936

To my friend
Bob Clancy

Sincerely
Garland Rotch

This print of Capt. Rotch, who stands at the left, was taken aboard the steamer Ekong—one of the first Allied steamers to enter Germany after the War—while navigating the mine fields of the North Sea.