

Danny Harris

Disturbing the Peace

Oakland, Calif.: Ehab Press 1978

$250

First edition. Octavo. 41pp.
Mimeographed leaves.
Illustrated printed wrappers.
Owner's embossed stamp
on the titlepage, else fine.
Revolutionary black power poetry. OCLC locates four copies; three in California.
[\[BTC#432200\]](#)

DISTURBING THE PEACE

BY

DANNY HARRIS

Produced by Ehab Press
P.O. BOX 1811
Oakland, Calif 94604

copyright 1978

BLACK IS BACK

The great white fear has suddenly reappeared
And Whitey is receiving the message loud and clear
BLACK IS BACK

Whitey's laws for the Rich
And Whitey's arms of Might
Can't stop Fate from setting things Right, what a sight
BLACK IS BACK

Spooks have been knocking on whitey's back door
Spades have been scrubbing whitey's dirty floors
Coons have been hung high up in trees
Niggers have been lashed till they fell to their knees
Time and time again we have asked, "What for?"
And the only answer that we get
Is that Black People are an eyesore???

Well Fuck That!!!

BLACK IS BACK

Black People have finally come together, can you dig it!
The Spooks, the Spades, the Niggers and Coons
Are all Proudly singing a brand new tune
Liberty with Dignity, or Death with a Gun
The Law of Retribution has finally come
And BLACK...?

BLACK IS BEAUTIFUL AND FOREVER.