Second edition. Octavo. 22pp. This copy inscribed: "Isabella Tyson with Lucretia Mott's love." Housed in a custom cloth case. Along with Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Mott was one of the leading reformers and advocates of women's rights in nineteenth-century America. Mott writes: "Credit not the old fashioned absurdity, that is woman's secondary lot, ministering to the necessities of her lord and master! It is a higher destiny I would award you." Together with Stanton she organized the first woman's right's convention in 1848. [BTC#432255]
