SOME THOUGHTS ON

FEMINISM & SEXUAL POLITICS

by VICKI DANCIN' CROW

First separate edition, reprinted from Maximum Rock N Roll 61 (Women's Issue). Octavo. [8] pp. Stapled pink wrappers illustrated with a vignette of Wonder Woman. Near fine. Polemic disputing the efficacy of the suppression of pornography as posited by Andrea Dworkin, Catherine MacKinnon and others, and praising the role of prostitutes, midwives, and witches and their contributions to feminism, with some interesting points, particularly about childbirth. OCLC locates a single copy (University of Michigan). We could find nothing about the author (other than an address in Laingsburg, Michigan), or anything else written by her using this name. [\[BTC#434298\]](#)
